I/we indemnify and hold harmless RYNCOR AUCTIONEERS (hereafter referred to as RYNCOR):

In respect of any claim of whatsoever nature, including but not limited to death, loss, injuries or damages of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising, which I/we may have against RYNCOR arising out of or in connection with the auction and myself/us being present or partaking in such auction.

I/we regard these terms and conditions as binding on my/our executors, legatees, heirs, successors in title and or assigned, respectively.

The auctioneer shall have the right to control, regulate and record the auction. The recording of the auction shall be prima facie evidence of the auction proceedings. The auctioneer may accept or reject bids in his sole discretion without providing reasons. This would include rejecting an offer previously accepted by the auctioneer. In the event of a dispute among bidders, the decision of the auctioneer shall be final and binding.

The auctioneer may, without penalty or prior notice, withdraw any item(s) from any group of assets ("lots") on auction at any time before the sale thereof or during the auction.

The act of clicking on the bidding button or submitting a bid price by the bidder shall constitute an offer to purchase for the amount bid.

The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser if NO RESERVE or SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION is applicable.

No "ringing" shall be permitted and if the auctioneer suspect that the bidders are involved in such activity, he shall be entitled to suspend or terminate the auction, or to prohibit those bidders suspected of such activity from making any further bids. In this context ringing are defined as a group of buyers at an auction who collude not to bid against one another in order to keep the auction price low.

The auctioneer is entitled to correct any bona fide error in the conduct or conclusion of any sale or arising from any incorrect information to the items for sale. In the event that the error is capable of not being corrected, then the auction shall be deemed not having taken place and no party at the auction will have any claims against the auctioneer or the seller arising from the cancellation of the auction.

All sales are done in one of the following manners:

NO RESERVE: means that there is no established minimum price for the item being auctioned. This means that no matter what the winning bid, the owner must sell it for that amount.

RESERVE: means a hidden minimum price that has to be attained for the bid to be accepted.

SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION: means that the owner has to accept or reject the bid after finalisation of the auction.

All items are sold "voetstoots". No representations or warranties are made by the auctioneer or the seller.

Neither the auctioneer nor the seller shall be liable in consequence of any representation made by them at or before the auction, in particular no warranties are made regarding immovable property, motor vehicles in respect of year, make or model thereof, and/or outstanding tickets or the roadworthiness thereof. It is specifically agreed that it is the sole responsibility of the purchaser to acquaint and familiarise himself/herself with the property he/she are bidding on.

Risk on each item passes onto the purchaser on the fall of the hammer or electronic notification of a successful bid once a particular lot closes on an online auction.

On the acceptance of a successful bid a document detailing (herein after referred to as the "invoice") the exact identification of the item sold, the price, any additional cost including but not limited to commission, and terms of payment are generated by the auctioneer and does the registrant hereby accept the content thereof as summary of the sale and amount due. Such invoice will be sent to the purchaser before close of the next business day.

The purchaser shall remove his purchases at the conclusion of the auction, and only after full clearance of his payment as set out in the invoice have been effected and all agreements required by RYNCOR has been properly signed by both parties.
